

Agenda Item 10. Presentation by the UNL Raikes School Students

A group of four students in the fall semester and five students in the spring semester with faculty supervision and mentors, worked on the setting up a fully electronic grant application process for the Trust. The students will give a demonstration of their product and answer questions.